В. MEMORANDUM OF LAW:

Pursuant to the ABA Model Rules of Professional Conduct (hereinafter "MRPC"), Section 1.7 of the rules provide that a lawyer shall withdraw from a matter when circumstances arise which impair her ability to discharge her duty of loyalty. In the instant case, the undersigned's acceptance of this pending criminal appointment presents a potential conflict of interest.

Based upon review of the file and brief discussions with the Defendant, NATHANIEL D. PUNZALAN, the undersigned is informed that at the time Defendant was arrested pursuant to a warrant of arrest, the marshal in charge was Marshal, Roland Okada. Further, after brief discussions with the Defendant, it appears that it is Defendant's desire to proceed forward with trial in this case. The undersigned believes that Roland Okada may likely be a key witness in the government's case in chief. Moreover, because of the past and ongoing relationship with Marshal Roland Okada, the undersigned believes that acceptance of representation of Defendant presents a conflict of interest. Based upon the undersigned's motion and declaration filed herein, the undersigned is hereby moving this Honorable Court for leave to withdraw as counsel on behalf of Defendant. See Declaration of Cynthia V. Ecube.

Based upon the foregoing Motion and the Declaration of Counsel, and for good cause existing, the undersigned is requesting that this Honorable Court permit the undersigned to withdraw as counsel of record, herein.

Dated this 28th day of November, 2007.
